better than fourth in the Futurity. His victory was welcomed by the crowd, for he was the public favorite at 3 to 5 and the first one of the day to score.

The backers of Surf Rider spent many anxious moments when Penman, the rider of Galantman, laimed a foul. As the rider stood in the presence of the stewards and made his charge a crowd cathered around the judges stand. When the red board was hoisted the crowd let loose a mighty roar of thanks.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Surf in the opener. He was ridden by lider, under a vigorous slashing ride by Jockey Fator, shot across the line half a length in front of Galantman today in the Champagne riakes. This was a seven furlong event, the first time the youngsters were asked to go the route. Modo came in third. Surf Rider carried the silks of John E. addeden and regement himself for not finishing better than fourth in the Futurity. His victory was welcomed by the crowd, for he was the cubit of the colors of Maxey Hirsch in the colors of Maxey Hirsch in the colors of Maxey Hirsch in the opener. He was ridden by Kummer and under energetic handling skimmed over the line in front. He was a 7-to-1 shot. The other day he was a 6-to-5 favorite. War Note lasted long enough to get the place, and Pep dropped in the third hole. Valor was a 3-to-5 shot, but got off slowly and was knocked about several times, so he was nowhere when the field saluted the judges.

Opportunities for Making Money

Are Greater Today Than Ever Before!

¶One often hears men say, nowadays, "I wish I had the chance that John D. Rockefeller had," or perhaps mention such eminently successful and public-spirited men as James J. Hill, Andrew Carnegie, Stephen Girard and scores of others, long since "gathered to their fathers," but the memory of whose achievements will be an example and an inspiration to millions of energetic young men for generations

¶ Ask any man whom you know, whose judgment is worth accepting, and he will tell you that opportunities in every line of human endeavor are far greater today than ever before. The question is are YOU prepared to grasp them? If not, now is the time to start building for the future. Industry, thrift, patience, CHARACTER are the
